We the People of the United States, in order to form a more perfect Union, establish Justice, insure domestic Tranquillity, provide for the common defence, promote the general Welfare, and secure the Blessings of Liberty to ourselves and our Posterity, do ordain and establish this Constitution for the United States of America.

Article 1

Section 1. All legislative Powers herein granted, shall be vested in a Congress of the United States, which shall consist of a Senate and House of Representatives.

Section 2. The House of Representatives shall be composed of Members chosen every second Year by the People of the several States, and the Electors in each State shall have the Qualifications requisite for Electors of the most numerous Branch of the State Legislature.

Section 3. The Senate shall be composed of two Senators from each State, chosen by the Legislature of the State for the Term of six Years, and each Senator shall hold his Office for the Term of two Years, and after the first Year the Vacancies in the Senate shall be filled up by the State Legislature.

Section 4. The Electors in each State shall have one Vote. Immediately after they meet, on the first Monday in January, next after the Year of the Election of the President, they shall be in the City of New York, until the 4th of February, next after the Year of the Election of the President, and shall remain at the City of New York until the 4th of February, next after the Year of the Election of the President.

Section 5. The Senate shall have one Vote. The Senate shall have the sole and exclusive Power of Impeachment. The Senate shall have the sole and exclusive Power of trying all Impeachments, when sitting on that Purpose, and shall hold a public Trial. The Oath of Office shall be sworn to by each Senator.

Section 6. The House of Representatives shall have the sole and exclusive Power of Impeachment. The House of Representatives shall have the sole and exclusive Power of trying all Impeachments, when sitting on that Purpose, and shall hold a public Trial. The Oath of Office shall be sworn to by each Representative.

Section 7. Each House shall have the sole and exclusive Power of Judgment in all Cases of Impeachment. When the Senate or the House of Representatives is sitting, the Senate or the House of Representatives shall be on oath or affirmation. When the Senate or the House of Representatives is not sitting, the Senate or the House of Representatives shall be on oath or affirmation.

Section 8. Each House shall keep a Journal of its Proceedings, and from time to time publish the same, excepting such Parts as may in their Judgment require Secrecy; and the Yeas and Nays of the Members of each House upon any Question shall be entered on the Journal. Neither House, during the Session of Congress, shall adjourn for more than three Days, nor to any other Place than that in which the two Houses shall be sitting.

Sounds familiar?

"Deprive the people of their national consciousness, treat them as a tribe and not a nation, dilute their national pride, do not teach their history, propagate their language as inferior, imply they have a cultural void, emphasise their customs are primitive, and dismiss independence as a barbaric anomaly."

Reinhard Heydrich
SS-Gruppenführer
Director of the Reich Main Security Office
